Government Gazette

FOR THE COLONIES OF

VANCOUVER ISLAND AND BRITISH COLUMBIA.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

No. 51.] VICTORIA, VANCOUVER ISLAND, TUESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1860. PRICE 6D.

A BILL

To extend the provisions of the Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856, 1857 and 1858, to Vancouver Island and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the provisions of the Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856, 1857 and 1858, to Vancouver Island and its dependencies.

Be it enacted by the Governor, on Her Majesty's behalf, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly.

1. That the said Acts shall be taken, construed, and read together, and be taken and deemed to extend to Vancouver Island and its dependencies, except as hereinafter mentioned.

2. The eleventh section of the Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856, shall not come into operation until the imposition of a Stamp duty in Vancouver Island and its dependencies.

3. The 42nd section of the said Act, 1856, shall be amended by omitting the words, the "United Kingdom," and inserting in lieu thereof, the words, "Vancouver Island and its Dependencies."

4. That the Reports to be made to, and the powers and duties vested in, and imposed upon the Board of Trade by the said Acts, shall be vested in, and imposed upon the Attorney General of Vancouver Island, or the person acting in that behalf, until some other person or authority shall be nominated by the Governor for the time being, of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies.

5. The Attorney General of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies, or the person acting as aforesaid, shall be the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies until a Registrar of Joint Stock Companies of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies shall be appointed, when all the powers and duties of such Registrar shall be vested in, and imposed upon him.

6. That the expression, "The Court," in the said acts defined, shall mean the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies.

Provided that all powers or functions assigned to any Judge or Court of Justice in England by any of the said Acts, shall be exercised by the said Supreme Court, and if in any of the said Acts, different modes of procedure are required to be pursued in England, or in any other part of the United Kingdom, the procedures required in England, shall, subject to the last preceeding provision, be pursued in Vancouver Island and its Dependencies.

7. That the "Official Liquidator," in the 88th section of the said Act, particularly mentioned, shall be in every case appointed by the said Supreme Court of Civil Justice of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies.

8. That the several powers by the said Act, vested in the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, shall be vested in the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies, who may make all rules which the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, is, by the said Acts, empowered to make; such rules when made to be approved of by the Governor for the time being, of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies.

9. That any person may be appointed by the Judge of the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies, to act as a special commission to take evidence.

10. Notices by the said Acts, required to be published in the London, Edinburgh and Dublin Gazettes, shall be published in the Official Gazette of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies.

11. All monies received, as mentioned in Section 83 of the said Joint Stock Companies' Act, 1856, shall, in lieu of the Bank therein mentioned, be paid into any incorporated or chartered Bank, carrying on business in the Colony of Vancouver Island.

12. The fees specified in the schedule hereto, shall be paid in respect of the matters therein specified, and shall be forthwith paid over by the person receiving the same into the Treasury of Vancouver Island and its Dependencies.

13. This Act may be cited for all purposes, as "The Vancouver Island Joint Stock Companies Act, 1860."
